

PILBARA INFOGRAPHIC

Mining, Oil & Gas, Heavy Industry and Infrastructure Construction, Maintenance & Operations, Shutdowns

82,500

Pilbara Region - November 2027
forecast workforce demand

The Pilbara Region represents 43 to 46% of the workforce demand in WA for the mining, oil & gas, heavy industry and infrastructure sectors.

Pilbara Region -
Current workforce demand

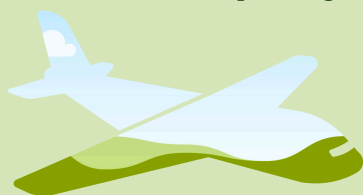

70,800

Estimated Workforce Shortage - Western Australia
Current	34,500
November 2027	45,000

Most significant occupation shortage in WA?

Estimated number of Pilbara
FIFO pax movements per year in 2025?

3.6 MILLION

MORE INFORMATION

Pit Crew's reports provide a 3-5 year forecast for demand and availability of workforce resources, informing stakeholders which skills and occupations will be in short supply, where, when and by how many. We prepare reports for every Australian state and territory.

Most significant labour market challenges in the Pilbara:

- Workforce mobility
- Skills dilution
- Availability of experienced workers

Scan for more information or for subscription package pricing:

